Telephone Interview Summary

Dear Sir:

This is Applicant's summary of a telephone interview on December 13, 2010 at 2 PM for the captioned application.

Present: For the PTO

Examiner James C. GOLOBOY

For Applicant

Attorney Samuel LAFERTY

Inventor Ken LILJE

Sam called Examiner Goloboy on December 13, 2010 to discuss an affidavit that had been prepared and submitted unsigned as part of a recent response to an Office Action. Ken Lilje was connected via a conference telephone line. Applicant wanted clarification as to the whether the substance of the Affidavit was convincing to the Examiner as presented or if the further evidence from independent publications or third parties would be more convincing to the Examiner. Ken Lilje summarized the affidavit in the telephone interview and offered to explain his reasoning in the affidavit or the technology of gas compressors to the Examiner, if that would be helpful. The Examiner indicated he would give appropriate weight to the affidavit if submitted as a signed document before the next Office Action. The Examiner did not seem to have any questions on the reasoning in the affidavit or supporting documents that might be supplied. Applicant committed to get the signed affidavit to the Examiner this week, if possible.

This is the sum and substance of the interview. No specific claims or other matters were discussed. Prior art references to Kaneko and Yagishita were mentioned, but not discussed in any details. No exhibits were supplied or discussed beyond the unsigned declaration. No agreement with respect to the claims was reached.

Should any additional fees be required to process this Interview Summary, Applicant hereby authorizes payment of said fees from The Lubrizol Corporation Deposit Account No. 12-2275.

Respectfully submitted,
